Course Description
This course reinforces the student's ability to read and comprehend complex writings and ability to converse on a variety of topics (media, literature, education, etc.). It is designed to move learners from a stage where they have achieved the grammatical skills to utilize language in a wider cultural context. Learners are widely exposed to the main issues related to the Arab-Islamic world. Students continue to read, narrate, and discuss authentic materials in Arabic and gain a complete understanding of almost all of the basic grammar structures of Modern Standard Arabic.
