Course Description

Through the training of theatrical performances, the course cultivates sentiments and enhances artistic accomplishment. This course is an art practice class based on the curriculum offered at the Film Director Department, Shanghai Academy of Arts. Combined with the popular performance workshop training model of European and American drama teaching, this course aims to improve the performance and expression skills for students who are interested in performing arts. As a general education course, through the drama art, it provides a new enlightenment for the students' personal cultivation, emotional development, and social manners.
