Course Description

This course reviews and masters elementary Japanese grammar and sentence patterns and develops a well-balanced lower intermediate level proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Students learn the 50 most important sentence patterns of the intermediate level, master 3000 basic words and 600 to 750 kanji. They read short written passages on various topics that consist of sentence patterns, grammar and new vocabulary, make speeches on topics familiar to them, and write well-organized passages. Text: NEW APPROACH JAPANESE INTERMEDIATE COURSE published by Nihongo KenkyuSha. Assessment: attendance, class participation, and homework assignments (30%), quizzes (40%) and a final exam (30%).
