Course Description

This course takes the form of a tour of the city and the environment near the Maison des Arts. Beginning with architecture and covering portraits staged in various buildings from the 15th, 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries, students create an urban alphabet book. Each session refers to two or three artists, photographers, or painters. Students learn to handle the device, exercise the gaze, and situate their work in relation to old or current references.
