Course Description
This course explores key aspects of 20th- and 21st-century literature and critical debate in Irish. The course covers the following aspects of the transmission and wider context of Early Irish documents: periods of Early Irish up to the beginning of Modern Irish (c. 1200 AD); development of the Irish script; Irish manuscripts and their dating; Irish glosses explaining Latin texts; other (more personal) Irish notes in manuscripts; Irish as a Celtic language and a brief comparison with Gaulish; Ogam inscriptions; and early Irish metrics and poetry.
