Course Description

In this course, students develop their language competence to an intermediate level. Students learn to perform a range of language tasks in familiar and social contexts with emphasis on strategies for communication. Students extend their reading and listening comprehension skills as well as their knowledge and use of French grammar and syntax. The course deepens students' understanding and appreciation of the customs, culture, and society of French speaking regions. This course is delivered via small group teaching with classes having a maximum of 18 students.
