Course Description

This course is for students who have learned the Japanese language for 150 hours at a university and mastered hiragana, katakana, and approximately 150 kanji and the 1st half of basic grammar. The emphasis of this course is to provide basic skills for conversation, reading and writing necessary for daily student life in Japan. At the completion of this course, students should have acquired the second half of basic grammar and vocabulary. Students should also be able to read simple texts in Japanese. It includes the second half of basic grammar, vocabulary, and 172 kanji (in addition to 145 kanji at the level of first half of basic) as well as be able to read and write about 170 kanji. Teaching is done in Japanese whenever possible, starting from the first day. Class will be conducted based on various activities.
