Course Description

This course analyzes different elements of a film, concentrating on choices/types of video editing and the effects that each choice renders. This course analyzes video techniques, such as close ups and wide-shots, to attempt to identify how video-editing communicates with the viewer, and how the style affects the narration of the film itself. Scenes from the works of Claude Lelouch, Sebastian Schipper, François Truffaut, Élie Wajeman, Quentin Tarantino, Martin Scorsese, Robert Siodmak, Alejandro Inarritu, Sam Mendes, Robert Altman, Andrew Niccol, Howard Hawks, Jean Cocteau, and Alfonso Cuarón are studied. This is a tutorial course.
