Course Description
This course focuses on France between the years 1870 to 1940. Specific topics covered include the founding of the Third Republic and the challenges facing the onset of republicanism from 1870-1914, the beginnings of the first World War and its effects on French society as a whole, the Dreyfus Affair, political movements in France, such as The National Block, Cartel and the Left, Fascism and the Popular Front. Relationships between France and the rest of Europe and financial crises are two major themes in the course. The class ends with a discussion on the motivation behind France's entry into World War II.
