Course Description

This course explores installation as a spatial practice within the expanded terrain of sculpture. Students examine installation as a hybrid form that negotiates and incorporates the boundaries of traditional art practices like painting, sculpture, and video. This course provides an overview of contemporary installation art practice and explores methods for producing work in a variety of media to utilize space. Students explore innovative applications of conventional materials, found objects, and time-based media such as video, sound, and custom technologies in the development of their work.
