Course Description
This course addresses the complexity of decision-making processes in the public sector with a focus on the implications due to different governance models, multiple stakeholders, and public-private relations. The course provides the tools, competences, and skills to understand, critically discuss, and design public, as well as collaborative, governance models and decision-making processes to support strategic choices of public interest and/or relevance. The course discusses topics including the evolution of governing models, public and collaborative governance, and solutions and levers to successfully manage public governance. The assessment for this course is based on a written exam, and group assignments.
