Course Description
The course provides an analysis of English literature (poetry and fiction) of the nineteenth century. It examines four specific phases of literature: romantic poetry, fiction before the Victorian period, Victorian fiction and poetry from the period 1840 - 1900 (Victorian and pre-modernist). The following aspects are addressed according to their respective phases: aesthetic, cultural and ideological aspects; in order to present the student with a functional idea of the creative literary panorama during the nineteenth century.
