Course Description

This course features an expansion of fundamental communicative competences in the areas of listening, speaking, reading, and writing into more complex conversational settings and types of texts. The student learns to express intentions, to present arguments, to generalize, and to make comparisons in order to master linguistically more formal settings such as the pursuit of studies, discussions, and presentations. Students are encouraged to compose more complex texts. This course is at the B1.1/B1.2 level according to CFER.
