Course Description
This course provides students with an opportunity to identify and develop the skills and resources which will maximize their success at university. The course facilitates students in achieving the highest grades possible across their courses in the BA. Students develop an understanding of university expectations, enhance academic skills, and develop an understanding of the different learning and assessment practices used in a university. Specific topics include critical thinking, academic writing skills, effective reading and note-taking, and experiential use of the UCD online classroom, Blackboard. A number of short written and online assignments are completed throughout the course. No special computer skills are needed, just a basic familiarity with computers and a willingness to use them.
