Course Description
This course provides a study of the recent history of Spain: the complex implementation of civil, political and social rights in Spanish society; the normalities and specificities of Spanish history in a European context; current problems and of Spanish and global society. The course is divided in four sections: the early 20th century; crisis of the 1930s; Spain in the time of Franco (1939-1975); and Spain from 1975 to the present. NOTE: This is the same as HIST 115, but taught in English.
