Course Description

In this course, contemporary dance, ballet, and yoga allow for further development of technically strong dancers, capable of exploring the breadth of artistry within their dance technique. Students receive individualized attention in small groups and take classes taught by leading dance industry professionals. Classes facilitate the mastery of exercises and consolidate the understanding of the principles of both techniques concentrating on the refinement of movement skills in more complex movement patterns. The course highlights the importance of efficient alignment, cardiovascular endurance, expression, and musicality.
