Course Description

This course is designed for students who are interested in launching, growing, or investing in early-stage companies. The course reviews the different sources of funding available to entrepreneurs and the key metrics considered by investors when assessing a new business. It covers important finance principles such as business planning, financial statement analysis, and startup valuation. Students develop a business plan and pitch to industry experts at the end of the course. The course is for students who are broadly interested in finance and entrepreneurship and does not require any prior background in accounting.
