Course Description
This course introduces students to the Persian language. The course teaches how to read and write the Persian script and introduces the main features of Persian grammar together with a basic vocabulary in an interactive communicative setting. It provides students with the key tools to understand, speak, read, and write elementary Persian. Translation exercises are given as homework and Persian poetry and prose readings are also regularly discussed and analyzed. Students are also exposed to Persian history and culture through sample readings, writings, discussions, and other cultural activities.
