Course Description

This course is designed for students who have successfully completed the intermediate level of German and who have a sound knowledge of German. This course is intensive and is intended for dedicated, highly self-motivated students who will take responsibility for their learning. The course deepens students competence in speaking and writing and to expands and refines their vocabulary usage. Through this course students are able to express and discuss ideas, opinions and information at the academic level. Special attention is given to the consistent use of self-correction. Furthermore, the course helps students to develop effective reading and listening strategies and deepen their knowledge of grammar structures. In addition, students analyze and interpret cultural, political, and historical topics in German-speaking countries and compare them with their own cultural background. Students develop and regularly use new strategies for language acquisition and improve their ability to choose the right linguistic register for different situations, topics and communication partners. At the completion of the course students are able to lead and participate in academic discussions about certain course-related topics. In addition, students expand and refine their essay writing skills and are able to write, revise and proofread essays that meet the standards of academic writing.
