Course Description

This course explores problems of linguistic and cultural difference through the process of translation between Indonesian and English. Students enhance their expertise in practical Indonesian-English and English-Indonesian translation and are introduced to key theoretical issues in translation studies. Apart from regular practical translation exercises using selected texts on a range of topics such as legal documents, reports, speeches, and newspapers articles, existing translated pieces in both languages are discussed. This is a bi-lingual course, conducted in both Indonesian and English.
