Course Description

This course provides a broad overview of the European Rights guaranteed within the framework of the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), a treaty signed in 1950 binding 57 European states. The course focuses on the fundamental rights and liberties guaranteed in the European Union. This course closely analyzes these guarantees and their specifications with regard to their correct implementation. This course also examines different cases in which guaranteed rights and liberties have been threaten and then solved by the Court of Strasbourg.
