Course Description
This is active and problem based learning course regarding contemporary issues of ASEAN, especially those of Cambodia, the Lao PDR, Myanmar, and Vietnam. The course examines various topics including the economy, trade, investment, development, labor, environment, industrialization, marketing, and public policy in ASEAN nations. Students learn from lectures (by invited professors and experts on each topic) in the classroom and field trips visiting public and/or private organization(s) in Thailand and another ASEAN member country. Field trips are a mandatory part of the course requirements. Students are required to participate in all field trips and must travel according to the itineraries provided. Assessment: class participation and attendance (10%), individual assignments (20%), group project and assignments (40%), final exam (30%).
