Course Description

This is a bilingual introductory course on some of the most interesting topics in Chinese history, literature, and culture. These topics are studied through the changes and continuities in the famous stories retold over time. The stories include those of the revengeful, the assassins, the queers, the cross dresser, and the ghost lovers. What you really need is a curious mind and an ability to comprehend basic spoken Mandarin. All assigned readings and presentation slides are in English. Classes are bilingual, and you can choose to do the term essay in either language.
