Course Description

This course provides students with a critical understanding and comprehensive knowledge of the government and politics of the EU, with a focus on EU public policy. It examines the main institutions of the EU (the Commission, Council, European Parliament and the European Court of Justice), interest groups in Brussels, and different theoretical approaches to understanding policy-making. Thereafter students learn about specific EU policies including: single market, competition, economic and monetary union, agriculture, social, internal and external policies.
