Course Description
This course examines superpower relations and nuclear tensions during the Cold War, including the collapse of the USSR and the decade of uncertainty that followed. It analyzes international relations from 1945 through 1998 and the comprehensive nuclear test ban treaty coming into force. The course focuses on areas of direct conflict and the prevalence of war across the globe as much as the nuclear stand-off which was M.A.D. between east and west. Social and cultural factors are considered, such as the reciprocating boycotts of the 1980 and 1984 Olympics.
