Course Description

This course is designed for higher intermediate learners. The course covers Vietnamese intermediate grammar, reading Vietnamese short articles, discussions in Vietnamese, and idioms and phrases. Students should have at least 1.5 years of Vietnamese studies to take this class, so they can learn through Vietnamese essays, movies, traditional music and related topics with better sufficiency. They are expected to be able to read Vietnamese articles correctly, express themselves in Vietnamese and also understand about the culture and ways of thinking. Assessment: midterm (20%), final (20%), and participation and class performance (60%).
