Course Description

This course covers grammar and vocabulary needed to read articles and essays on familiar topics of interest and write reports on them, attend classes, and express their own opinions, toward mastering the Japanese speaking skill that leads from intermediate to upper-intermediate level. The course teaches the necessary sentence structures/expressions, and when, where, and how to use them, to describe your concern so that the other party is interested, and you can respond appropriately by asking questions of your opponents' interests. Also, you can add simple prefixes and fixed form expressions etc. in formal scenes; respond by looking at the reaction of the opponent, by adding appropriate fillers, response, and necessary information.
