Course Description

This course examines concepts relating to gender and sexuality, and discuss the obsession with gendering in a historical, social, and cultural context. Topics for discussion also include the sex/gender system; gender and sexuality in relation to identity, behavior, the body and desire. Questions include: to what extent are the characteristics of masculinity and femininity born with us, or to what extent do the makers of gender vary over time and between societies? Is sexuality innate of socially constructed or a combination of the two?
