Course Description

This beginning Chinese language course is for students who have taken Beginning Chinese I or have taken at least 100 hours (6 hours per week) of Chinese language instruction. The course develops proficient language skills in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, for students to communicate effectively in their daily lives. The course instructs on using appropriate Chinese to make plans with friends, order food at restaurants, etc., leading to greater understanding of Taiwanese culture and language. The course utilizes the textbooks, Far East Everyday Chinese I-II (A) or A Course in Contemporary Chinese I-II.
