

COURSE DETAIL

50 YEARS OF GLOBAL ENVIRONMENTAL GOVERNANCE

Country

Denmark

Host Institution

University of Copenhagen

Program(s)

University of Copenhagen

UCEAP Course Level

Upper Division

UCEAP Subject Area(s)

Political Science International Studies

UCEAP Course Number

138

UCEAP Course Suffix*UCEAP Official Title

50 YEARS OF GLOBAL ENVIRONMENTAL GOVERNANCE

UCEAP Transcript Title

GLBL ENVIRNMNTL GOV

UCEAP Quarter Units

6.00

UCEAP Semester Units

4.00

Course Description

This course reflects on how the institutions, issues, actors, and practices of global environmental governance have evolved over the past half-century since the 1972 Stockholm Conference on the Human Environment, the first global conference on the environment. In addition, it explores the potential of current environmental governance systems to accelerate the social, economic, political, and ecological transformations for a sustainable future.

Language(s) of Instruction

English

Host Institution Course Number

ASTK18396U

Host Institution Course Title

50 YEARS OF GLOBAL ENVIRONMENTAL GOVERNANCE

Host Institution Course Details

<https://kurser.ku.dk/course/astk18396u/2022-2023>

Host Institution Campus

Host Institution Faculty

Social Sciences

Host Institution Degree

Bachelor

Host Institution Department

Political Science

Course Last Reviewed

2022-2023

Print