COURSE DETAIL

AMERICAN ELECTIONS AND CAMPAIGNS
Country Korea, South
Host Institution Yonsei University
Program(s) Yonsei University
UCEAP Course Level Upper Division
UCEAP Subject Area(s) Political Science
UCEAP Course Number 133
UCEAP Course Suffix
UCEAP Official Title AMERICAN ELECTIONS AND CAMPAIGNS
UCEAP Transcript Title US ELECTN&CAMPAIGNS
UCEAP Quarter Units 4.50
UCEAP Semester Units 3.00

Course Description

This course provides an overview of the American political system and its electoral processes. It examines institutions and rules that structure electoral processes and discusses recent issues in U.S. elections. Topics include American political system, voting rights, congressional elections, presidency and presidential elections, political parties, campaign finance and interest groups, race and ethnicity in American elections, media and elections, and representation and accountability.

Language(s) of Instruction
English

Host Institution Course Number
POL3150

Host Institution Course Title
AMERICAN ELECTIONS AND CAMPAIGNS

Host Institution Course Details

Host Institution Campus

Host Institution Faculty
Social Science

Host Institution Degree

Host Institution Department
Political Science and Diplomacy

Course Last Reviewed
2023-2024

Print