Course Description

This course is designed for students with no previous knowledge of the Chinese language. It studies the fundamentals of modern standard Chinese, both spoken and written. The materials introduce basic sounds and structures using practical contexts useful to university and community life and requiring creative and interactive participation. A total of 600 Chinese characters are introduced. An additional, elective hour of discussion in English permits a deeper cultural understanding of China. Text: ELEMENTARY CHINESE compiled by staff in Fudan University's department of Chinese as a Foreign Language.
