Course Description

This course complements the competency of Modern Standard Arabic achieved in previous studies of Arabic and focuses on the four language skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. It practices translating selected passages that discuss media, day of celebration, university, literature, and story as well as predicting the meaning of new word; reading aloud and discussing texts; distinguishing the root, pattern system, and complex sentence structure as well as differentiating and producing the Awzzan; creating an article (200- 400 words) in Arabic about social and political issues in Jordan and/or the Middle East; and concluding the main ideas from an audio text (3-5 minutes) about social problems in Jordan and political issues in the Middle East.
