Course Description
This course provides a detailed, vivid introduction to the origin and main unique features of Chinese traditional culture with a focus on its distinctive artistic charms. It also presents an overview of the spirit and core values of Chinese culture from a philosophical perspective with an attempt to exemplify the inner mind, cultural character, the life views, and aesthetic interests of the Chinese people. This course explores a variety of subjects ranging from ancient cultural treasures such as the painted pottery, the bronze, and the tradition of ritual and music, to enduring artworks of painting, poetry, garden, etc. This course presents these subjects in such a way that allows students achieving a basic view of the interrelatedness among Chinese culture, Chinese arts, and Chinese people's contentment with a harmonious life.
