Course Description

Russian III is a year-long course for the students who finished Russian II. During the second semester of the course, the class will practice conversational Russian, which is used in daily settings for discussion of news, lifestyle, etc.

Methods of instruction focus on developing functional competence in Russian listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Every topic is built around forming communicative skills and includes new vocabulary, grammar, listening, speaking, and writing exercises.

Also, students will learn more about Russian daily culture and some useful idiomatic expressions and modern slang.
