Course Description

This course provides an overview of the history of Japanese literature from ancient (□□) to pre-modern times. The goal of this class is to understand traditional Japanese literature deeply by examining certain representative works from each period, genre by genre. Students will learn about the background and analyze the content of each work, i.e. Heian Court literature, medieval military literature, pre-modern Chonin (□□) literature, to gain a broad understanding of traditional Japanese society.
