Course Description
This course offers a general preparation in the history of Spain from antiquity to the present. Topics include Hellenistic and Roman times; the political, economic, and cultural evolution of Spain during the Middle Ages and Renaissance; the rise and decline of Spain's European Empire from Ferdinand and Isabel to 1700; and the revival of Spain in the 18th century. The course also explores the social, political, and cultural history of Spain since Napoleon and features the Second Spanish Republic, the Civil War, the Franco era, the transition to democracy, and late 20th-century Spain.
