Course Description
“History of Daoism” was regarded as the most important motif in the Daoist studies in the last several decades in China. However, the historical narrative of sects and Daoist masters in different periods and dynasties in the history of Daoism should not be regarded as the total picture of Daoism, the only domestic belief tradition in China. This course starts with a historical review of the history of Daoism. Lecture topics: pre-Confucianism of Daoism, native beliefs before the Eastern Han Dynasty; origin of the Daoist order; construction of theological system.
