Course Description
This advanced-level Spanish language and culture course is designed for students who have successfully completed intermediate-level coursework and are now seeking to further enhance their proficiency in Spanish. Focusing on advanced-level fluency and accuracy in communication, the course teaches students to effectively manage the linguistic challenges presented by a complication or an unanticipated turn of events. The course focuses on achieving proficiency levels corresponding to B1.2-B2.1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and Advanced Low/Mid of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL). Through a combination of interactive lessons, co-curricular activities in and around the city, and cultural exploration, students will strengthen their speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills while gaining a deeper understanding of Spanish language and culture.
