Course Description

This course is designed for students who are planning to take the Japanese Language Proficiency Test Level N2. Students enhance their understanding of grammar and sentence patterns and improve their reading and listening skills necessary to pass the N2 test. Mock exams are held at the beginning of the semester and immediately before the exam date so that students can grasp their own Japanese language ability and become familiar with the format of the test. In addition, mock exercises are held in each area: "characters and vocabulary," "grammar," "reading comprehension," and "listening comprehension."

The course provides a strong foundation in Japanese not only to pass the proficiency test but also to develop well-balanced listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills.

Note: Intermediate Japanese language levels at the host university are comparable to UC upper-division language courses.
