

COURSE DETAIL

COLONIAL LATIN AMERICAN LITERATURE: FROM DISCOVERY TO INDEPENDENCE

Country

Spain

Host Institution

Complutense University of Madrid

Program(s)

Complutense University of Madrid

UCEAP Course Level

Upper Division

UCEAP Subject Area(s)

Spanish

UCEAP Course Number

110

UCEAP Course SuffixUCEAP Official Title

COLONIAL LATIN AMERICAN LITERATURE: FROM DISCOVERY TO INDEPENDENCE

UCEAP Transcript Title

COLONIAL LAT AM LIT

UCEAP Quarter Units

5.00

UCEAP Semester Units

3.30

Course Description

This course is a study of the principal works and authors of the colonial period of Latin American literature. Topics, figures, and authors covered include: the arrival of the Spanish to the Americas; Christopher Columbus; the chronicles of the Spanish conquest (Bernal Díaz del Castillo, Bartolomé de Las Casas, Alvar Núñez Cabeza de Vaca); "El Inca" Garcilaso de la Vega; the Renaissance in Latin America; epic poetry (Alonso de Ercilla); Baroque literature; the Enlightenment and revolutionary prose; and poetry in the 18th century.

Language(s) of Instruction

Spanish

Host Institution Course Number

802127

Host Institution Course Title

COLONIAL LATIN AMERICAN LITERATURE: FROM DISCOVERY TO INDEPENDENCE

Host Institution Campus

Moncloa

Host Institution Faculty

Facultad de Filología, Campus de Ciudad Universitaria

Host Institution Degree

GRADO EN ESPAÑOL: LENGUA Y LITERATURA (2009-10)

Host Institution Department

Departamento de Filología Española IV, Grado en Español: Lengua y Literatura

Print