Course Description

Although Australia is one of Japan's most important partners in the current international arena, the real picture of Australian society remains unfamiliar to Japanese people. After fighting each other in WWII, Australia and Japan have built a firm relationship through human exchange and trade. In recent years, they are strengthening their ties in the field of security, resulting in a "special strategic partnership." This course is expected to deepen one's knowledge about Australia - Japan's Asia Pacific neighbor.
