Course Description

This course covers the period between the Predynastic and the Middle Kingdom and includes: reliefs, statuary, architecture, and minor arts, illustrated with images. It focuses on learning how to look at and to analyze Egyptian art and to place it in its context. This course involves a significant amount of memorization to create a mental data-bank that is useful when putting excavated material in context and in analyzing Egyptian art. It includes field trips to the museum and to Giza and Saqqara.
