Course Description

This course provides a study of the process and production of visual arts in Chile in the second half of the 20th century. It analyzes artistic tendencies in the cultural and historical context in which art was generated. The course discusses images from an anthropological, psychological, and aesthetic context, and addresses the expansion of the visual arts with new methods of image reproduction (mechanical and electrical), as well as art through object-based proposals, conceptual art, performance, and installation.
