Course Description

This course teaches the creation of 2D artworks using a variety of techniques including drawing, ink painting, collage, and photography. Students explore setting subject matters through mixed media, encouraging self-expression and artistic exploration. The course covers both figurative and non-figurative approaches to painting and drawing, with an emphasis on developing skills in figure painting, still life, and landscape works. The course also introduces students to contemporary art and Korean art, guiding them toward creating unique and individual pieces.
