Course Description

This course is an opportunity to watch, discuss, understand, evaluate, and develop audiovisual narratives around brands. This course entices students to amplify their vision of the advertising film industry, its history, current best practices, and new challenges. From the 30/60-seconds-ads to the social media video content, students work on the storytelling behind campaigns and have the opportunity to produce audiovisual ads for clients chosen by the students. This course covers advertising and cinematographic language; creation, production and evaluations of advertising films; format and content transformations along history; and current audiovisual advertising practices.
