Course Description

This course is designed for senior international students majoring in Chinese language (for foreign learners) with a focus on language and culture. It aims to help students understand the main characteristics of the Chinese language by comparing the similarities and differences in expression methods and syntactic structures between English and Chinese. Additionally, through practical translation exercises from English to Chinese, the course seeks to reinforce and deepen students' understanding of Chinese and enhance their ability to express themselves more accurately in Chinese. The ultimate goal is to increase students' interest in English-Chinese translation and cultivate their basic translation skills.
