Course Description

This course is designed for international students who have passed the Japanese Language Proficiency Test N2 level. It focuses on developing the Japanese language skills necessary for university life through a variety of practice activities, such as speeches, presentations, discussions, and role-playing.

Eligibility: B1 level in the CEFR/JF Standard for Japanese-Language Education (N2 in the JLPT). Ability to read about 750 basic kanji is recommended (equivalent to having completed K300).

By the end of this course, students are expected to:

- Have gained guidance for living a meaningful study abroad life by discussing career development.
- Have improved their Japanese expression skills and build interpersonal relationships.
- Have developed problem-solving skills.
