Course Description

This course explores masterworks of short fiction from Nobel Prize winners in Literature from across the globe.

The course covers the following works and authors: John Steinbeck's classic American novella about migrant workers and class struggle during the Great Depression, Of Mice and Men; the magical realism of several short stories by Gabriel Garcia Marquez (e.g., A Very Old Man with Enormous Wings); the magical power of fiction in the service of telling gripping stories will be further illustrated by short stories from the Egyptian writer Naguib Mafouz, and the Chinese laureate Mo Yan.

The course concludes with the most recent Nobel winner Han Kang's work about resistance and transcendence, The Vegetarian.
