Course Description

This course develops students’ core social policy skills, including critical analysis, argument development, and the use of an evidence-informed approach. The course introduces students to key social policy issues including activation policy, universal basic income, and the gender pay gap. Students are challenged to practice and develop the skills they have learned by engaging critically with these topics. Students are supported to critically appraise how explanations of and solutions to social issues may be influenced by analysis of evidence and competing perspectives.
